On November 13, 1922 the late Mr. William & Mrs. Opie Starks gave birth to Annie B. Starks in Monroe County, GA. Annie B. became a member of the Cleveland Chapel A.M.E. Church at an early age, where she attended with her family. In her early years she served on the usher board faithfully. Annie B. lived her life ministering to family, friends and the community with whatever you needed. She enjoyed laughing, smiling, dancing and sharing her knowledge on life.

Annie B. Mitchell prepared hot lunch for her working husband five days a week (using pots & pans and making fresh cornbread) daily. She would often share her years of experience with her children. She would tell them "You better make yourself #1, you can't take care of nobody else if you don't take care of yourself". She had a unique way to share her wisdom with her grandkids. When sharing their daily struggles with one of her favorite things she would say to the kids is "Don't you be no peewee".

She married Mr. Randolph Mitchell Sr. on Aug 10, 1940, who preceded her in death. They were married for 63 years.
