

Allen F. Densley

November 27, 1953 - November 15, 2024

Allen Foster Densley, born on November 27, 1953, in Atlanta, Georgia, was the beloved son of the late John James Densley and Nellie Bryd Densley.

Allen graduated from Stockbridge High School. Allen initially pursued studies at Clayton Community College but soon found his calling in serving his country. He enlisted in the Army, serving honorably for six years. Following his military service, Allen dedicated 30 years to Clayton County Animal Control.

Allen had a loving passion for music. He experimented with various instruments, including the piano. However, he mastered the guitar, where he called inspiration from artist such as Minnie Riperton, James Brown, Tyrone Davis and Jonnie Taylor. Friends and family would often gather to watch him showcase his skills. He performed at several venues but where he loved to play the most was Trinity Church, to which he was a valued member.

Allen enjoyed the free feeling of motorcycle riding. Even after a motorcycle accident, he got back on his bike. As a proud member of the WindJammer Motorcycle Club, he shared this enthusiasm with fellow riders.

He is survived by his daughter, Nalisa Densley; grandchildren, Bryson and Faith Zorda; mother, Nellie Bryd Densley; brother, Glenn Densley; sister, Frances Sumerlin; niece,s Valenthia Kyser, Cheritia Densley, and CheVada

Densley; nephew, Emmanuel Sumerlin; and a host of friends and family.
