“ I was sadden when I first heard the news of Aunt Ruth's death from my Mother! Having to acknowledge the loss of another Adams' daughter was just unthinkable to me! I asked my mother Aunt Ruth's full name to look up her obituary.

When I found Aunt Ruth's obituary, I was almost floored to see how VERY much she featured my Mother! I got so FULL with emotions! To be viewing my Beautiful Aunt all dressed up and hair done so pretty made me feel more sadness! I wish we (Aunt Ruth and I) could have talked about her, me, my Mother and their lives as Siblings having grown up at 204 Mill St.

But I wanted to let you, her immediate family, know that though I didn't personally know Aunt Ruth, I felt I did! Because I knew that she was one of my Mother's sisters. Like all the rest I have always LOVED her dearly!

I'm soooo sorry for your (the Jenkins) and the Adams' family loss! And I pray that God's love and grace will sustain you.

Even to your old age and gray hairs, I am he. I am he who will sustain you. I have made you and I will carry you. I will sustain you and I will rescue you.

Isaiah 46:4 (NIV)

“ To my beloved sister Ruth, In the holy name of Jesus. I thank GOD for the wonderful years we knew each other. Praise the Lord. If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane, I would walk right up to heaven and bring you home again. We all loved you, but God loved you the best. LOVE ALWAYS, YOUR SISTER MRS. VELMA ADAMS BEBEE MACON GEORGIA.

“ Aunt Ruth,

I'm at a loss for so many reasons....

To see your photo and to see how much you look like my very own grandmother, it literally took my breath away. I wish I would have gotten a chance to see you---in person, to know you, to share our stories, to pray with you and most of all to hug you.

Despite these misses and I know that it may sound odd, but I can say for certain that...I know that I love you. May the Lord be with the entire Jenkins and Adams family. Rest easy Sweet Angel. You're with the Great One now.
