Tribute Wall

“ Oh my, I just realized that Mama McClendon has transitioned. She was always the voice of reason with me and my children. She loved us like her own. I will always remember her working in the yard, planting her trees especially the Magnolia that still growing tall. We (the kids and I) will always love you for loving us, your words of wisdom and encouragement. To the family thank you for sharing your mom with me. I pray you have peace that supersedes all understanding...

With Love,

“ What I remember most about your Mom is how she would light up at the mention of her children. She was a proud and fierce mamma lion.
That didn't stop with you. My Mom remarried in your home and she assured me that everything would be ok. She convinced me that smiles would look much better in the photos...
All that to say she is present with the Lord and shines on in the beautiful faces of her children
May God Keep You
