“ My deep condolences goes out to the family of Mrs. Arrie as I referred to her as "granny" like her loving granddaughter Pinky who shared her old childhood memories and trips to see granny. It was always a welcome invite to visit the little lady on the hill. I know in my heart that God allowed her to live a full life and her work here is done. "Granny ", you are in store for a bigger celebration. SO rest on until we meet again. God makes no mistake and has a great reward for you. Love V. Byrd and family....Atlanta , Ga

“ God looked around His garden and found an empty space.
Then He looked down upon this Earth and saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God’s garden must be beautiful
He only takes the very best...

Grandma, it seems as if I couldn't get to you fast enough Monday morning. To be able to hold your hand one last time and tell you how much Kaitlyn and I loved you. I'll always cherish the special moments we shared. You were a blessing to us all. Rest well.

Always & Forever,

Tasha, Travis and Kaitlyn

“ My earliest memory is of you coming down from Georgia to visit us, and from then on our visits to you. The memory of the love behind your bright smile will always remind me that Somebody important cared about me. Thank you for that cousin Arrie.

“ To dear beloved family. I pray that the tears be of joy & happiness for our Chief of the tribe. A great life's journey has been fulfilled with many great works done along the way. To all my beautiful aunts and strong uncle. All my life I have received the nuggets form you that has helped me along the way. The times shared with grandma and her strong hands of discipline and patience has made positive impacts on all of us to carry on while she has gone home now. Always in our hearts and memorable times of laughter. I look forward to seeing you later "MOTHER".
