“ I remember Arthur as being a caring and devoted member of the Mt Olive church family. I had a running joke with Arthur when I would see him on Sunday at the church I would always ask him, when could I get my tie or blazer back he was wearing. At first, he would look at me a little funny with a frown and then he eventually turned it upside down into a smile when I continued to ask and smiled as I did so.

Arthur was a great guy and will be greatly missed.

Rest in peace Arthur.
