“ Audrey was such a helpful and caring person that I have enjoyed working around. People like Audrey don't come around every day. She was truly a special person, rare to find these days, that did not seek attention for herself but cared about others. Praying for strength for her family

“ Those of us who worked with Audrey are stunned and saddened by this news. She worked hard to keep our office running smoothly. Audrey was a gentle and humble person who did not like to be the center of attention, but her smile is on the minds of many people here whose lives she touched. Peace to all of her friends and family.
