

Bernard Stewart Jr.

August 1, 1956 - August 4, 2021

Bernard, (aka Uncle Butsy or Spitshine) was born on August 1, 1956, in Key West, Fla to the late Bernard Stewart Sr. and the late Dorothy Hightower. He was educated in Key West until he reached the tenth grade when he made the decision to move to Kentucky and continue his education in trade school. Bernard later returned home with certifications in both painting and sandblasting which he turned into a lifelong craft.

Along with his wife Cassandra (Sandy) Marie Stewart, whom he met in 1984, Butsy sons Antonio Bernard and Christopher as well as his grandson Antonio Legend all have been left to mourn his untimely passing. He was preceded in death by his eldest sister Florelle Strive, leaving his remaining siblings Arthur (Reggie) Symonette, Francina Edwards (Eugene), Alphonsine Grimage and Alfred Strong all to mourn as well.

His best friend Keith Sands, his dear nephew Robert Carr, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends have all been left to mourn Bernard's passing. But know that you were always in his thoughts, and he loved you all. Know that Bernard loved his life. He loved his family; he cherished his grandson Antonio Legend and adored little Elizabeth Grace. Fishing was his refuge. A true Mr. Fixit around the house and he absolutely loved - loved his reggae music. And I know his mom Ms. Dorothy will be meeting him at the gates to welcome her son home.
