“ Ms. Beverly you will truly be miss. Its like its not real. All the time we had our talks and you telling me everything will be good. Im so glad you was hard on me because I needed it. I'm going to miss seeing you. And telling you how good you smell. You wasn't just hard working boss, you was a mom, grandma, friend, auntie you was so important in so many people lives. And we will never let that go. So difficult as I write this but I know in my heart you will always be. I love you Misty

“ Oh my, where should I begin. You have been my work mom ever since I could remember. You always know when I need you mentally and spiritually. I long for our little after work calls, and early morning text. I will always cherish our time together, until we meet again. Love always forever, never forgotten. Fly high my angel, fly high. 🙏
