“ Bianca Joy and I met 18 years ago in the ladies room at my church. The connection was instant. My joy complete. She shared her mom and sisters with me so I wouldn't be lonely in Baltimore, and I shared my mom with her so she wouldn't be lonely in PA. I loved Ramel and Naja so much! I wish I could have been present to express my love in person, but your family will forever be in my heart!

ME

“ Bianca and I met when she started at GE, my first impression was...I am not sure if she will fit on our team. When we met she told me I need to decorate her desk in purple, I was like whatever. Long story long. I did... that was over 15 years ago. We go months without talking, but when we did it was like we just hung up. Bianca loved GOD, her babies and husband. True friend, funny, hardworking, talented. Too her babies Ramel & Lil Taryn, Thank you for sharing your mommy. She was so proud of you both, she lived for you both. Continue too make her proud, as I know you will. I will forever love my friend Bianca "B". Rest easy my beautiful angel

“ My Dear, Sweet Joy! She is and will always be a part of me everyday through song, a memory that results in laughter, the love found in her children's hearts and her smile embedded in my soul. I am grateful to God for the true love, patience, endurance and friendship that I was blessed to have with Bianca. The greatest sincerest, unselfish woman, mother and sister that I anyone could have! You are FOREVER with me!

She was full of love and strength . “ Don't know where to start. I was and still am in shock. I had no idea that Bianca had transitioned to glory until her celebration of life came across my fb page. I was blessed to meet Bianca at Paulding hospital a few years back where I had the opportunity to be her nurse. As God would have it, we developed a friendship that would continue outside of the hospital. And although we may not have spoken daily, little post and messages were a constant reminder that we remained in each other's heart and mind. Bianca was truly a beautiful soul that touched not only my life but the lives of many others. To her family, today you are grieving the loss of a loving wife, mother, daughter and friend. Know that God is a comforter and he knows what you are going through. Be blessed. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
