“ We send out most sincere condolences to Melanie, the family and friends. Miss B was one of my youngest choir babies 25 years ago in Henry County Youth United. I have watched her blossom into a beautiful accomplished & successful young lady. We don't know why things happen the way they do sometimes but we have to continue to trust The Most High. “ Cousin Sunshine aka Miss B! WOW! I am not sure where to even begin with the memories and the sadness my soul feels. From the days of Henry County Youth United in Christ Choir when you were knee-high to a duck until now as you flourished into the beautiful young woman you were becoming. I will FOREVER cherish our conversations in your boutique, as I spent all my money, and your asking my advice on some things we talked about. Never did I ever! Lord! Why? I know you make no mistakes, but this budding flower had REALLY begun to bloom. I guess You needed her to beautify your garden all the more. Miss B's departure has left a void in the hearts of many who knew and loved her and she them in our own "special way." I have TONS of cousins, but some are simply more special than others and she was one of them. I am going to miss those texts about your events here and there because you knew I was going to show up and support. Little cuz, your void is already being felt in a major way because the light on earth just became dimmer. To Melanie, Ms. Essie, Aunt Carolyn and Uncle Bobby, her beloved aunts, uncles, other cousins and friends, we must continue to lean and depend on Jesus. We may not understand it at all right now, but we will understand it better by and by. Know that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Loving on you all from a far. Miss B, I pray I see you in that United Choir in the sky. I love you, Boo! (as I always told you when we met up)

“ B, was the sweetest person and had a heart of gold. i met her 7yrs ago purchasing hair, and we automatically click. This is so hard for me to understand and accept As we spoke every day whether text or Facebook. I know God makes no mistakes, but this is hard. I'm going to miss getting on her nerves telling her to give me her wig or just asking a million questions. Her family are in my prayers.

We laughed and giggled so many times together, when I spoke with you on Monday I did not know that would be the last, but I'm glad I got to here your voice one last time. I will continue to keep our precious moments deep in my heart and will keep your mother and family lifted in prayer daily. Bianca will be deeply missed by us all. Take your rest now sweet lady.*
