Mr. Bobby 'Bob' Bradley was born on April 19, 1948 in McDonough, Henry County, Georgia. He was the sixth of ten children born to the late Clarence and Zepolia Bradley. On Monday afternoon, December 30, 2024 he was granted his wings.

He was educated in the Henry County public school system and later enlisted in the U.S. Navy. Bobby was owner and operator of Hi-Tone Metal Finishing for over 20 years. He enjoyed his retirement years serving the community, especially the children of Coweta County, alongside his VA and Newnan Classic Car Club buddies; refurbishing automobiles and showcasing his beloved classic car collection; fishing and relaxing in his favorite recliner.

He will be reunited with his parents, his siblings (Lucille, Willie, Robert, and Mary) and son Antonio Bradley. He leaves to cherish his memory three daughters, Renise Murdaugh (David), Bonita Bradley, and Jessica Sales (Keon), and son Hiram Bradley; grandchildren, Michael Lambert, Taylor Britt, Sykoria Byrd, and Darius Mayo; great-grandchildren, Nomai, Nile, Nkwanga, Sahara and Sanaa. Five siblings, Irene, Charlie (Louise), Grady, Earnest (Lizzie), and Curtis; and devoted companion Annie R. Waldon.
