“ I will always have fond memories of Uncle Bas. He was the most soft spoken uncle I can remember. When he first came to the States, he would get excited whenever he heard the fire trucks and rush to the window to them drive pass. That was his passion

“ I fondly recall Uncle Bos as a quiet, jovial man with an infectious laugh! He will be surely missed. May God continue to strengthen Aunt Hya, Marguarite, Tony, Chris, and the rest of the family during this time of grief!

“ I will never forget the day I was in at the house and all of us was talking and Boswell said WILL SMITH was a good fire man so the rest of us said we never know he was a fire man then Boswell said yes he was because both of them work together laughing spoil that day because he said it with such a conviction that would lead you to believe that it was true that was a day with Boswell that I will never forget lol

Bos was a very quiet person but when you sit down to talk with him make sure you have time. He had a great sense of humor and a distinct laugh. He was dedicated to his job. He will be missed. To my sister Hya and my niece and nephews and the entire family I pray for comfort and peace from God who knows all about your sorrow and is touched by your grief. May your soul RIP Bos.
