Caleb John Gaston, at age 22, passed away unexpectedly on September 1, 2020. He was born on December 26, 1997 in Stockbridge, Ga to John and Kathy Gaston. He was a proud Stockbridge High School 2017 Graduate. At a young age Caleb took an interest in sports, and soon began excelling at basketball. He joined the school basketball team. He also took his talents to the AAU, where he would travel state to state with his team. He played basketball every day, whether at school, at AAU, video games, or pickup games at the park. He always had a ball in his hand. This is how he met some of his closest friends to date.

Caleb was an up and coming music artist with dreams of making it big. He was recognized by his peers by his stage name Ultra Lucky. Through networking in the music scene, he was able to meet a lot of people, who would go on to be his biggest supporters. He was known for his huge personality, and great sense of humor which made it easy for him to make friends everywhere he went. His laughter was contagious, and his big smile made you forget your troubles. Caleb cultivated friendships, at every stage of his life. These bonds became a part of who he was. He was a member of the Berean Baptist Church.

He loved children. Which is why as a teen, Caleb worked at the Henry County Recreational Center as a youth counselor. He always had a fun story to tell about the kids in his group. He was always adored by his younger cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Caleb will be sadly missed by his parents, Kathy and John; his beloved brothers, Rory(Lynda), Mario (Candice); his cherished sisters, Cassius, and Ryan (Anthony); nieces, Jordan, Madison and Rylie; nephew, Roy Jr. He will be forever remembered by his many aunts, uncles, and host of cousins as well as a countless number of friends.
