

Carolyn Pope Broughton

May 5, 1957 - July 15, 2014

Carolyn Pope Broughton was born on May 5, 1957 in Atlanta, Georgia to the late James and Rosa Mae Pope. She was the youngest of twelve children. She passed away peacefully on Tuesday, July 15, 2014 surrounded by her loving family.

Her spiritual journey began early as a youth at Rocky Mount Baptist Church under Reverend James H. Miller. She later moved her membership to the Travelers Rest Missionary Baptist Church under Reverend Arthur L. Powell.

Carolyn graduated from Morrow High School in Morrow, Georgia in 1975. With this class, many life long bonds and memories were formed. Late on in life, she started working for the United States Postal Service where she met many great friends and her loving husband, Wardell Broughton. On June 7, 1996, they united in holy matrimony.

At Travelers Rest, Carolyn served on the Nurse's Guild and volunteered her time for during the Vacation Bible School, which she enjoyed dearly. Amongst family, friends and co-workers, Mrs. Carolyn Broughton was known as "The Avon Lady". During Carolyn's 27 years of service until her retirement in February 2014 from the United States Postal Service, she received numerous awards and recognitions because of her work ethic, love of others and willingness to succeed.

Mrs. Carolyn Pope Broughton made her journey to heaven with God. Preceding her in death were her parents, James and Rosa Mae Pope and her sister Marie. She leaves to cherish fond memories, her loving and devoted husband, Wardell Broughton; two children, Shaneria and Terrence Richardson; a granddaughter, Nakyra Williams; three step-sons, a step-daughter, seven sisters, Dorothy Smith (Howard), Geneva, Rosaella, Sarah, Helen, Patricia Lee (Oscar) and Marilyn; three brothers, James, Robert Lee and Charles; three aunts, an uncle, a sister-in-law, two brothers-in-law and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, friends and her beloved church family.
