“ Although I never got to meet Cathy in person, (as we were both online worshippers at First Baptist Church of Stewardship) her voice told me that she was a sweet and caring person. A beautiful child of God, who loved and trusted Him without any doubt. She brought sunshine to the Sunday School Class each time she logged on; whether from her home or even from her hospital bed. Her closing prayer each week was always heart warming. While she will be greatly missed among us, I am thankful to God for her healing with Him.

To the Family, may all the beautiful memories you shared be of comfort to you, now and forever.
