

Charles Waters Sr.

February 11, 1944 - July 17, 2017

Charles Waters, Sr. was born February 11, 1944 in Montgomery, Alabama to the late James Waters and the late Ethel Lee Edwards. Charles was raised in the household of his Uncle Willie (Bill) Scott and his Aunt Sallie “T” Scott in Ellenwood, GA. They raised Charles as their son along with their four children in a Christian home with a sense of strong family values, love and respect.

Charles attended the Mathalama A.M.E. church school and later attended W. A. Fountain High School in Forest Park, GA. His first job was with Chick–Fil-A in Hapeville, GA known as the Dwarf House. His work history includes Hi-Brand Foods, Frito-Lays, Salvation Army and later retired from Macy’s Department Store. Charles was an outdoor person. On any given day you could find him down at the creek burning trash or in his truck making deliveries or picking up produce from the Farmers Market.

Charles leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Melisha (Larry Toland), Charles, Jr., their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Browning. Son, Erick Charles, his mother, the late Irene Barber Waters.
