“ Sabrina... I am having such a time believing this. My heart is so heavy. You were such an amazing beautiful person. I will see you again. I love you.

“ I'm feel so much sorrow for you and your loved ones. You were a beautiful soul in a sometimes very harsh and unforgiving world. I hope you found the peace you so longed for, my sweet, sweet friend. <3 Love you Breenah.

“ My girl. When you walked into my life so many years ago I knew you were my person. I never met anyone that had almost identical upbringing as me. We helped each other through our past, and longed for the same future. Unconditional love. I'm so glad you found that and I'm just broken knowing we won't share the future together. You were my angel on earth and I pray everyday your kindness and huge heart flows over from heaven. I will miss you more every day. I love you sweet girl.

“ Sabrina, you are truly missed. I think the best memory is when we all went out on my pontoon boat. I was still learning to drive it and I stopped to fast causing the front of the boat to go under water. Anything that floated was washed off the boat. It wasn't until later on that day we realized your Old Navy flip flops was one of the items gone. We never did find them 🌀 maybe a big fish ate them for somebody got them a new pair of flip flops that day. But I tell you what that was many many years ago and it's been an ongoing joke since. I can't think about going out on a boat without thinking about your missing flip-flops girl. I love you with all my heart, thank you for the time that you have given us on Earth. I will see you when I'm called home until then just know we're thinking about you. Love your brother from another mother. 🥰❤️💕😭
