Our beloved Cynthia Askew Dodson transitioned to her heavenly home on the 26th day of October 2017. “Simp” as she was fondly called, was the 9th child of the late John Jack and Zenoria Askew. She was born February 19, 1956 in Clayton County, Georgia

She was a devoted choir director and member of several choirs at Zion Grove Baptist Church. She was a faithful member and served resiliently on the women’s ministry and deaconess board.

Cynthia graduated from Gordon High School in DeKalb County, Georgia. Upon graduating she worked in various healthcare positions, most recently employed as a Credentialing Specialist with SERCO.
