“ I've seen my share of brother-in-law's come and go, but hands down David was my fav! He was the funniest, kindest, coolest, most down to earth person you'd ever want to meet. David was always there for my family and I and he never complained about any of our shenanigans, lol.

Helping others seemed to come natural to him. I can honestly say that everytime I moved (and we moved alot back then), David was there to move me- free truck, free labor, and LOTS of free laughs! Some of my fondest memories of him are the simplest ones- just hanging out in the den at he and my sister's home, playing cards, watching movies, and throwing something on the grill. What can I say...being around David felt like home.

He left us way too soon, but I know without a doubt that an angel walks among us. I love you David and you will truly be missed. 💙

I miss my BIL (Brother-in-law). I could always count on him for a good laugh. So funny!! So thankful God placed us in the same family. He's in that cloud of witnesses looking down on us now. We will miss him a lot, but I am confident he is in a better place...praying for the rest of us who have been left behind that we will get our lives right with Christ, so that we will be ready when He comes, and we are able to see the ones who have gone on before us. ❤️❤️❤️ We'll miss David.

“ David and I went to Japan together for Panasonic. I would have been lost without him! He got us on the trains and scored us some extra days in Tokyo! I will always remember him for that experience and his kindness and infectious smile. Rest in Peace friend.
