“ Uncle David you was the best uncle a little girl could ever have and no matter what I love you to the end of time until we meet again I was remembering when my mom brenda Gail told just start in ministry and had just taught me how to pray it was February 14th 1985 and I remember seeing you on the news and we rush to the hospital and I seen everybody crying and stretcher came down the hall blood everywhere. I remember slide it down the wall and telling god that I was just a little girl and if he was who my mama said he was and can do what she said then please GOD save my uncle life and to see god move so miraculously and allowed you to see me grow up get married and have kids of my own my heart is at peace because my god is awesome and I know you got your well done my good and faithful servant
