“ I just can't find the words to express how much hurt I feel. The Friday of the convocation I felt in spirit to call you and I didn't. I was thinking about some childhood memories and remembered when you took me and Twin under your wings and showed how to work and spoke entrepreneurial skills into our lives. You gave me my first job cleaning banks and then went on to just encourage me to become peaceful, responsible and respectful young lady. You had your own way of speaking into our lives and that I will forever be grateful for. Even being the stern choir director that you were. You didn't want any of us to sound crazy when we sang....lol....just some of the he few memories I'll keep of you. I love you. Rest well dear cousin....□

“ Wow cousin, I miss you so much. I'm so thankful for the memories I have with you. I just wish we had time to make a few more. All of your family is hurting right now but we pray that your soul is at rest. We were just talking about you doing a photoshoot but you didn't know what to wear. Well, I can imagine you are looking pretty sharp now in your white robe. I love and miss you so much. Until we meet again 🥹💔🙏

“Cousin! I'm still speechless. I REALLY wanted God to heal you on this side, but he chose to on the other side. This is A LOT, but no more than we can handle because God is FAITHFUL! We're looking after Auntie, your mother, and always have and will. Rest well, dear cousin. I always felt we had "twin" personalities that we didn't get to explore. But "I gotcha." Love you and rest well.
