

Donald Terrell Clark

July 24, 1974 - July 14, 2015

Donald Terrell Clark Bailey was born on July 24, 1974 to Charles Edward Bailey and Gail Clark Bailey. Terrell was baptized at the age of 16 at Christ Center Tabernacle. He graduated from Tower High School in Decatur, Georgia and also attended DeVry University. Terrell was known for his contagious smile and outgoing spirit. He was a friend to all and enemy to none.

Computers were his thing, you need it fixed, he can fix it. He was free spirited, kind hearted, and loved his children. He was a teacher, preacher in his own way and had an awesome love for life. Terrell was preceded in death by his grandmother, Eldoris Clark Jackson.

Terrell leaves to cherish his memories a loving wife, Sabrina Clark; three children, Brody, Alexander Boyce, Camden Brian Hill and Karrah Janee' Chamlee; father, Charles Bailey (Ilona) of Fort Greely, Alaska; mother, Gail Clark Bailey of Griffin, Georgia; grandparent, John and Odessa Merriweather; brothers, Charles Bailey, III (Dana) of Detroit, Michigan, and Detrick Clark (Telisha) of Fort Hood, Texas; sisters, Tambrell Clark of Newnan, Georgia and Ariesa Evans (Dwayne) of Camp Humphrey's, South Korea; two special "best" friends, Jason "Opie" Murphy and Robert French; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
