

Doris Lemon

June 11, 1924 - March 2, 2015

Doris Pittman Lemon was born on June 11, 1924 in Henry County, Georgia. She was the fifth of thirteen children born to the late Claude Pittman and Carrie Sloan Pittman. She was preceded in death by six brothers and three sisters. She attended school in Henry County.

Doris was a lifelong member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church, joining at an early age under the leadership of Rev. H. M. Alexander. She served as church secretary for many years, she sang in the choir, she was member of the Mission Board, Mother Board and Deaconess Board. She loved Mt. Olive. She had a large collection of Christian books and she loved to study God's word. Things that she would like to be remembered of she wrote is that I tried to be like Jesus and love everybody.

Doris worked for Tykie Toy in Conley, Georgia for 13 years ending in 1963. She then started working at Dowling Textile Manufacturing Company, now known as Encompass, where she retired after 25 years in 1990.

She was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Andrew (Pal) Lemon in 1945. He preceded her in death on October 10, 2009.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a daughter, Christine Banks (Robert); two grandchildren, Gregory B. Banks and Rashonda B. Favors (Derek); great grandson, Christian B. Favors; two sisters, Annie B. Finch (Willie) and Claudia M. Hunt (Pink); brother, David Pittman (Doris); two sister in laws, Mattie Pittman and Kate Pittman; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
