“ To the family of Mrs. Dorothy, I am so sorry for your loss of this beautiful soul. I worked with Mrs. Dorothy at #3289 Kmart on Watson Blvd. Before I shipped of into the military. I always made it a point during my military career to come visit, if for only a moment. Mrs. Dorothy when I would come back to Warner Robin's on leave. She was a beautifully spirited lady with always a kind word... Heaven gained a angel, we lost a sweet dear friend.

“ I am truly saddened by the loss of Ms. Dorothy. My mom and I worked with Ms. Dorothy for years. She and my mom worked together for over 20 years and were friends. I used to call her Mama Dorothy or 2nd mom and she would call me her daughter. She was such a sweet lady and a joy to be around. Rest in Peace Ms. Dorothy. My condolences to the family.
Love, Tierra & Delphine

My heart is truly hurting right now. Ms. Dorothy was the most free hearted, selfless, good spirited, caring, loving and very loyal person you could ever wanna meet. I met Ms. Dorothy in 1997 I've never heard her say a mean thing about anyone. She will be missed dearly. Rest in heaven (Lou Lou). Take your rest Ms. Dorothy. Love you always. Peggy
