

Dorothy Tyler

April 23, 2013 - October 25, 2013

Dorothy Mae (Gaston) Tyler was born on April 23, 1931 to the late Emmett Gaston and Thelma Watson. She earned her education at Henry County Training School and completed her teaching certification at Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia. Dorothy was an educator and devoted her life to special needs children. She spent her life working at the Henry County Metro Rural Service Center where she retired after 25 years. Dorothy joined the Shiloh Baptist Church in 1977 under the leadership of Rev. Dr. E. W. Lee where she served as a choir member. She was a member of the National Black Caucus. She was the proud Matriarch of five generations. She was preceded in death by one son, Timothy Adell Tyler. She leaves to mourn five children: daughters, Regina Odell Tyler, Jeanette Waldon (James), Deborah (Dee Dee) Tyler, Dorothy Elaine Porter (John) and son, Anthony Odell Tyler (Jacquelyn). She also had nine grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren, and six great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
