McDonough Chapel

Earnest James Miller Jr. affectionately known as Jabo was born November 11, 1961 to Marion & Earnest J. Miller Sr. Jabo transitioned to eternal rest on Saturday, January 20, 2018.

Jabo grew up in McDonough, GA and attended Henry County School System. Jabo worked various jobs around McDonough. He would refer to himself as a "jack of all trades." There wasn't a problem Jabo didn't offer a solution to; rather it was right or wrong, he had a solution to the problem.

Jabo helped many people around McDonough and many people welcomed & accepted him with open arms. In 2008 Jabo befriended Rick & Devlin Willingham after selling a bucket of pecans in front of their restaurant. From that point on a long lasting bond developed and he was welcomed into their family with open arms. Jabo later referred to Rick as "Shawty" and Devlin as "Boss Lady."

Jabo is survived by his Miller & Willingham family. He also leaves to cherish his memory a devoted friend Mrs. Virginia Johnson whom he often referred to as "Momma."
