“ I just recently learned and very saddened regarding the loss of my dear friend Clifford Miller, Now it's my pleasure to share these kind words about the things I remember most about Clifford, First he was always in this playful kinda mood while keeping everyone around them always laughing and teasing was just his way of say hello.

Clifford and I grew up as kids only a short distant away, In his parents backyard he placed these two basketball hoops, that's where Hi/I occupied our free time every chance we got, even right smack dab in the middle of summer or mid winter made no different to us.

Now, there's just one more thing I thought everyone oughta know about Clifford. He was a really really swell pal to play to a game of one-on-one basketball with as well as an awesome pal just to hang out.

Your Pal, James Cloud.
