“ I will always remember cousin Gene's animated spirit. He had a gift of being the center of attention by his gift of storytelling and explaining events. In the 70's he used to enter rooms with a loud extension of the phrase, "What's Happen'?"!!!! He also grew a greater interest in Jesus when had an experience similar to Joseph in Genesis and purchased 150 books to learn more. Only the LORD knew his heart and what he searched for, but he was willing to learn, than just accept that life was only as he saw it in his environments. He loved his children, and made me a proud six year old by the joy he had during the birth of his first child. He chose to raise her as a single dad before he eventually married and had the others. Love, Cousin Cecelia
