

Eitho Castedio

December 8, 1950 - May 2, 2026

Eitho graduated from Forest Park High & attended classes at Clayton Jr. College. Following his passion, he taught some martial arts classes at that College. He worked in accounting services, as an armed security guard, & as an electrician. He was also a "stay-at-home" father for his daughter. Eitho enjoyed repairing appliances, & working on cars. Besides working outdoors, he enjoyed listening to, & playing, blues music. Favorite artists were Jimmy Reed, Eric Clapton, & Joe Bonamassa. He played his music loud on his Fender-style electric guitar, hooked up to his vintage Marshall amplifier, & used his "wah-wah" pedal. Known for his impeccable attire, he had a fondness for long-sleeved dress shirts. Eitho enjoyed walking with friends, George & Flora Hazelton, and watching classic westerns, Over the years he enjoyed his "outdoor" dogs: Jahina, Hercules, & Jack, &, in TX. his pony, Sparky. He loved sitting & talking with older friends, many of whom have now passed on.

He is predeceased by his parents and these siblings: Arthur Lemon, Delores Lemon Wheat, Eddie Lee Lemon, Louise Lemon, & Jessie Lemon.

Memories of him are cherished by family & friends. He is survived by daughter: Cherrylita Castedio; sons: Eitho Lemon (Retha); Anthony Mejorado (Dallas, TX.); grandchildren: Tameea Lemon, Zyanne Lemon, Emani Lemon, & Kahli Mejorado; great grandchildren: Dez'Ron Lemon-Barfield & Nolan Jones;

Sisters: Mary & Arrie Lemon; nephew: Bobby Nolan (Jildrenda), great-niece: Jazmine Nolan; great-nephew Dieonte Bryant; in addition to a host of cousins & extended family.

He will be greatly missed by his life partner of 28 years, Janice Arcuria.

The family thanks the staff of the Alzheimer's Services Center, Brightmoor Hospice, & Unity Care Keepers for their loving care of Eitho. Also thanks to Sherry Turner, and other friends, who kept a prayerful vigil over Eitho during his final days.

“ Had the pleasure of meeting Eitho and Janice through “friends of the library”. His calm demeanor and care for his friends and family were certainly traits to be admired.

“ When I started as the chair aerobics instructor at Harvest Village Jonesboro over 2 years ago, Eitho was one of my first students and the first man in my class. He ALWAYS showed up in cowboy boots, a willingness to move, and some kind of statement that would make the class have to pause and think. He will be missed.

Rest well Eitho 🙏

“ I remember the first time I met Eitho. I was a brand new manager of the Morrow Branch and he came in there to meet me and say hi. I didn't know who he was at the time, but I immediately liked his warm and friendly personality. I had a couple opportunities to hear him play his guitar. He was a truly good person and will be missed.

Anytime we would see each other he always had something "funny" to say. He would tell me about his guitar and and we would briefly talk about music and then he was off to the next thing, running around with Janice. Rest easy Eitho. May God bless and comfort Janice, Cherrylita and their entire family during this difficult time.
