

Elaine A. Dinson

February 24, 1955 - February 13, 2022

Elaine Alexander-Dinson was born on February 24, 1955, in McDonough, Ga. to the late John Wesley and Mary Geraldine Alexander, and the union met with great happiness.

As she grew, it became apparent that Elaine loved cinema and music. She had a love for Theatre and Music. Elaine enjoyed reading and comedy sitcoms, and she also had a passion for reading the bible.

Elaine was known for being a loving and caring homemaker. She was also a hard worker. She worked diligently and was devoted to her family and friends. She would always say, "Thank you, God, for my blessings and keeping my family safe."

She loved cooking and talking to family. Elaine was known for giving her opinion and making an individual stop and think about life. She would leave you asking yourself, "Have I truly lived my life at its best?"

Elaine grew up as a Baptist and was a simple, kind person. Even during her illness, she showered those around her with love. The doctors and nurses always loved to see her glowing smile and spirit. Elaine left a lasting imprint on our hearts and mind. Elaine, we will TRULY MISS YOU!!

Elaine leaves to cherish her memories: Her four children, Shalanda, Keisha, Samuel, and John; grandson Alvan'ta; sister Mary; brothers Tommy and Jerome; Sisters-in-law Gracie Crawford, Vanessa Bolden; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Preceding her death was her husband: Samuel Lee Dinson.
