“ Dear Mama,
What can I say ????? This is So hard, as I sit up on the side of my bed at 4 am in the morning still in disbelief that your gone. I will miss talking to you almost everyday if not everyday, taking trips to the fleamarket, Antique shops, our shopping trips, or just being up on the phone with you all night researching our cool & exciting finds from that day. I'm going to miss you telling me everything will be ok just pray about. I'm going to miss coming up and going to sit by the water with you. I'm going to miss your smile and how we would just sit up and laugh all night. I know everyone will miss your loving & kind spirit along with being the life of the party!! I want to remember all the good times and the many nights I slept by your bedside while you were in the hospital praying and hoping you get better soon so you can come home. But mama I always said you were a fighter and you fought to the very end. I love you mama forever & always !!!
Your babygirl as you always called me
Love Necee
