“ *Sorry to hear. God Bless
From an old friend of hers.*

“ Faye was my aunt, but was only a little over 10 years older than me. She was more like an older sister than an aunt. She knew how much I loved her. We talked almost every day. My heart hurts with the loss., but she was a strong Christian. Even though she didn't have a way to go to church she watched preachers on tv. Our loss is Heaven's gain.
