

Emory Lewis Weaver

June 27, 1945 - July 29, 2014

Emory Lewis Weaver, affectionately called Lewis by his close family and friends was born on June 27, 1945 in Cairo, Georgia to the late Greenie Weaver and the late Lily Mae Shivers. He later found the love of his life and married the late Geraldine Holland on May 14, 1966. They would be married for 48 years.

Lewis was a “Master” gardener. Everyone that knew Lewis, knew that one thing he could do well, was garden. He would always share his harvest with his close family and friends. Lewis was a jokester. He loved to tease and kid people to get a laugh. Lewis worked in Dekalb County for a period of time. He later was gainfully employed at Plymart Lumber Company until he retired.

Lewis leaves three children to cherish his fond memories, Norris (Griffin), Jeanette (McDonough), and Michelle (McDonough). Grandchildren, Keana, Mario Sr., Tawana, Carlo Jr., and Adrianna. Great grandchildren, Maryana, Mario Jr., Alauna, Darius, Dareana, and Tequarry. Two sisters, Carrie Lou Washington, Annie Grace Weaver, and one brother Walter Weaver.
