“ It would have been very difficult a chore indeed to find a more intelligent human being than Enos Campbell. His knowledge was vast and his memory amazing to say the least. Enos had much difficulty with close relationships after he came to the United States from Jamaica, and ended up with a record of three divorces, three children he hardly ever saw, and three grandchildren that he never laid eyes on. I sincerely wish things would have been different. You will forever have a special place in my heart. Thank you for our wonderful son and daughter...”
