

Ethel Logan

February 20, 1917 - September 24, 2018

McDonough Chapel

Ethel Rose Logan was born on February 20, 1917, to the late Sampson and Mattie Tucker in Uriah, Alabama. She was born as the seventh child with six brothers (Deceased).

She confessed her hope in Christ and was baptized at an early age.

By any standard, Ethel was truly a remarkable woman. She found time not only to meet her family's needs, but was for many years a working mother. A tribute to her strength, motherly guidance, sacrifices and now with God's blessings she has brought the Tucker Family together.

On Monday, September 24th, 2018 God called Ethel Rose, his good and faithful servant home. Now she is resting peacefully in the arms of her Lord.

Ethel leaves to cherish her memories, one son Charles Rabb (Patricia), Robert, (Deceased). A host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, great nieces, great, great nieces and nephews and loving friends.
