

Exzavia Thomas

July 19, 1949 - June 15, 2020

Mr. Exzavia “Zay” Thomas was born to the late Estella Thomas and the Late Willie Grady Taylor on July 19, 1949 in Henry County, Georgia. Mr. Exzavia received his wings and was called to better serve the Lord on Monday, June 15, 2020.

Mr. Exzavia confessed Christ at an early age joining the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. He attended Henry County Schools and after graduating with the class of 1968 he went on to work for Dekalb County. After leaving Dekalb County in 1980 Mr. Exzavia started a new career with Vulcan Materials Company, where he was a very hard worker for over forty years until he retired in July of 2015.

He was preceded in death by three siblings, Carolyn Thomas, Patricia McKibben and Tammy Thomas.

He leaves to cherish his memories, a very loving and devoted friend Ms. Gail Wynn; sons Exzavia Thomas Jr. and Christopher E. Thomas; four grandchildren, Marley Alyse Gail Thomas, Za’Niyah Chanel Nelson, Chad Patrick Thomas and Kairo Anthony Bourne; brothers, Mr. Rudolph Taylor and Mr. Anthony Thomas (Rose Mary); sisters, Ms. Angela Thomas, Ms. Connie Tyler and Ms. Gloria Bennett; aunt Ms. Regina Mullins; several very loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Zay had a good soft loving and caring heart and I should know I was with him soon after birth and very much of the time before God called him home.

REST IN PEACE MY GOOD BROTHER.

Uncle Zay! What can I say? For those who knew you and loved you there's nothing I need to say. Your kindness and sweet spirit spoke for you. Never a dull moment and always with that smile and grin!

Although my heart aches and I will surely miss you I praise God that you will suffer no more. You will be sorely missed by all knew and loved you. You will continue to in my heart and thoughts. Rest easy and Rest in Heaven Uncle Zay.

Always in my heart.
