

Frances Inez Boyce

April 8, 1927 - May 26, 2016

A Time to Be Born

Mother Frances Inez Brocks Boyce was born on April 8, 1927 in Jonesboro Georgia to the late Eugene and Naomi Brocks.

A Time to Live

Mother Frances united in holy matrimony on March 1, 1947 to the late Elder Willie Lee Boyce, Sr. To this union, seven children were born – two daughters Irene Nash and Patricia Coleman, preceded her in death. In addition, she was preceded in death by her sister, Ruby Anderson and three brothers, John Moses, Willie Floyd, and Henry Brocks.

Mother Frances joined the Dixon Grove Baptist Church at an early age under the Pastorate of the late John A. Dixon. She sang in the choir and participated in fundraisers for the church. Later, she attended Temple of Christ where her husband was an associate minister until his death. She served on the Mother Board. She was a strong, praying woman who always read her Bible and prayed for her family and others. She loved the Lord with all her heart. Mother Frances received her education from the Dixon Grove School. She also attended the Clayton County Senior Adult Program for 20 years. She enjoyed riding the bus, socializing with friends and going on trips.

Mother Frances was a devoted housewife and mother. She loved to cook and take care of her family; always in the kitchen with a smile on her face until her health failed. If you said, "I love you", she would say, "Love you more".

A Time to Die

Mother Frances entered into eternal rest on May 26, 2016. She leaves to cherish her memories, three sons, Willie Lee Boyce, Jr., Lorenzo Boyce (Terri) and Jerome Boyce; two daughters, Marilyn Jackson and Barbara Griffin; seven sisters, Eula Mae Crumbley, Hattie Gipson, Clara Eason, Louise Crowder, Lucille Cloud (Eddie), Betty Reeves and Diane McKelvin; a brother, Marvin Brocks (Willie Mae); an aunt, Helen Davenport; twenty-one grandchildren, fifty great grandchildren, seven great great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
