

Frances Moseley Lummus

September 5, 1924 - May 13, 2020

Frances Lummus was born on Friday, September 5, 1924 in McDonough, Georgia to the late Dock Douglas Moseley, Sr. and Mary Pearl (English) Moseley. She was the youngest of four children.

Her early education began in the Henry County School System. Faithful to her trust and belief in God, she was baptized at Springfield Baptist Church.

Before becoming a full time mother and housewife, she worked as a steam press operator at various cleaners in Lakewood and South Atlanta.

Most people remember her Sunday dinners of fried chicken, collard greens, mac'n cheese and lots of sweet tea. She was also known as the Cake Lady. Triple Layer Coconut, Caramel, Chocolate, German Chocolate, Red Velvet and Italian Cream.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children Sherwood Lummus (Addie), Robert Lummus, Delois Price (Timothy), and LaVerne Lummus. Her grandchildren, Eric Stroud, Audreaus Stroud (Fidel), Janetta Cureton, Christe Lummus, Enrico Lummus, and Solomon Stroud. Her great-grandchildren, Jasmine, Jordan, Jaylen, Jada, Ariana, Justin, Audreaus Jr., Elijah, Orion, Gloria, Renee and Aaliyah; numerous nephews, nieces, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

Her husband, Chester Lummus; father and mother, Dock Douglas Moseley Sr. and Mary Pearl English Moseley; brother, Dock Douglas Moseley, Jr.; sisters, Mary Elizabeth Wade and Sylvester Moseley Daniels; nephew, Henry Moseley II; niece, Mildred Wade McIntosh; daughter, Gloria Ann Stroud, all preceded her in death.

The year 1989, I was introduced to an exceedingly kind and sweet lady, whom I would soon address simply as Mamma or Mamma Lummus. Delois (Dee) and I were assigned to the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Center in Knoxville, TN. On a day trip to a military reserve facility in Atlanta, Dee mentioned that her Mom had prepared a late lunch for us, before we drove back to Knoxville, TN. Not one to turn down a meal, I wholeheartedly agreed to this side stop to Dee's family home. Oh, my goodness, what a feast Mrs. Lummus, had prepared: Fried chicken, skillet fried corn, corn bread, dessert made from scratch, and of course the sweet tea! From that meal alone, I fell in love with Mamma Lummus, for her love of her family and the warmth she extended to a stranger. Throughout the years, my friendship with Dee has never faltered and my love for Mamma Lummus, deepened, too. As my family grew, my children were introduced to Mamma Lummus and embraced this gentle woman, on the occasion we visited Atlanta. To my dear friends, Dee and LaVerne and your brothers, I am thankful for the day, that I was introduced to Mamma Lummus and the gem of a woman that she was to myself and my family.

Much love to you all.
