

Freddie J. Stone Jr.

December 1, 1943 - November 8, 2016

Freddie James Stone, Jr. was born in McDonough, GA on December 1, 1943 to the late Freddie James Stone, Sr. and the late Hazel Elizabeth Miller Stone Watkins. Freddie transitioned to eternal rest on Tuesday, November 8, 2016.

Freddie attended Henry County Training School. He retired twice from the DeKalb County Sanitation Department. After his first re-tirement, Freddie worked at the Varsity and as a cab driver for the City of Atlanta. He ended his second stint with DeKalb County due to health reasons.

Freddie loved to look good and have a good time. He was often thought of as the life of the party. Freddie was very meticulous about his appearance. He was a sharp dresser and he loved the ladies. His boisterous personality and silly jokes will be missed by all who knew him.

Freddie was pre-deceased by his parents and brothers, Willie Frank Watkins and Robert Lee Watkins, Jr.

Freddie leaves to cherish his memory his daughters, Tamara Mitchell and Frebrena Stone, sisters, Rebecca Marshall (Eladio Gonzalez-Perez) and Vicki Watkins, step-father, Robert Lee Watkins, Sr., Ex-wife, Brenda Stone, sister-in-law's, Arlene Watkins, Grace Watkins and Phyllis Watkins and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.
