

Georgia Mae Yancey

October 8, 1945 - August 17, 2018

Morrow Chapel

Georgia Mae Yancey (Snow Byrd) was born on October 8, 1945 to the late Milton Combs Sr. and Annie Ruth Combs. She was one of 7 children, which included: Betty (who preceded her in death), Isaiah, Milton, Helen, Barbara, and Dexter. She graduated from Luther Judson Price High School and went on to become a Certified Nurse Assistant where she did private patient sitting for over 15 years. On the evening of August 17, 2018, Byrd made her heavenly transition.

On May 17, 1969, she married Willie C. Yancey. They resided in Atlanta, GA for 26 years until moving to Ellenwood, GA in 1997. Willie and Byrd had 3 daughters: Marla, Pam, and Tracey. For many years, Byrd served faithfully at Sylvester Baptist Church as a senior choir member, youth director, Sunday School teacher, Deaconess and member of the Seasoned Saints ministry. Byrd mostly enjoyed cooking, spending time with family and friends, playing cards and reading. She thoroughly enjoyed listening to gospel music and watching "TBN." She never met a stranger and would give you anything, including the shirt off her back. Her most enjoyable moments were spent with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She enjoyed the spoiling of each one of them.

She is survived by her loving husband, Willie Yancey and their three beautiful daughters: Marla Brown, Pam (Ernest) Dixon, and Tracey Yancey; five grandchildren: Jamal Brown, Lauren Johnson, Jeremy Brown, Ernest J. Dixon, III (Tre) and Christian Dixon; her two (2) Crown Jewels (Great-Grandchildren): Autumn Johnson and James L. Johnson, Jr. She is also survived by her mother, Annie Ruth Combs; three brothers, two sisters, in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and long- time friends Jannie Mae Barnes and Annie Gibson.
