“ My sincere condolences to the family. Hazel Mathews was a great mentor and coworker. We lost contact with each other and I was trying to reach out to find her about a month or two ago. My love to the family. My prayers of comfort are sent for God to give the family comfort during this season.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Hazel Mathews was my friend for 35 years. She embodied the principle of kindness, trust, sisterhood, and integrity. She was someone I could confide in with complete trust and respect. I will continue to thank God for her friendship and the good times and laughter we shared. May God continue to comfort you all during this season.

“ I send my condolences and prayers to the family. I had an opportunity to work with Ms. Hazel. The words spoken at her Homegoing Services rang true. She was kind and sweet. She had the grace to produce an atmosphere of camaraderie and patience. Thank you for sharing Ms. Hazel with those who had an opportunity to get to know her. I pray God's continual love and peace be with you all.
