

Irene Glass

July 22, 1938 - December 23, 2013

Irene Glass was born July 22, 1938 to Doris Lucille Grier and Oliver Harris in Henry County, Georgia. She grew up in Stockbridge, Georgia where at an early age she was baptized and joined Mt. Olive Baptist Church. Stockbridge is where she met the late Willie Floyd Watson, Jr. They moved to Atlanta, Georgia where together they raised her daughter Brenda. Irene loved caring for not only her immediate family but her extended family as well. Irene was a devoted mother, who spent much of her time cooking and preparing meals for others. Because she cared so much for others she went to work for the Palaio Family as their housekeeper.

In 1976 she began working at The Westin Peachtree Plaza Hotel in Atlanta when the hotel first opened, in the housekeeping department. Irene did her job so well she became one of the supervisors of the housekeeping department. She worked for several other hotels in the Atlanta area until health reasons prevented her from doing so. She joined Second Mt. Vernon Baptist Church and was a member for over forty- five years. She was a member of the Nurses Guild, and later she joined the Mother's Board.

She is preceded in death by her husband Willie Floyd Watson, Jr. and her younger brother Dexter Curtis Grier. Irene is survived by her mother Doris Lucille Grier (Weems); daughter Brenda Glass; granddaughter Cae'Lenthya Moore (Banks); grandson Christopher Montez Glass, granddaughter Renita Williams; three great-grand children Jaylen, Joshua and Jordyn; uncle Raymond Stroud, cousin Berma Hall (Bennie); cousin Josephine Middlebrooks; and a host of other family members, friends and the Second Mt. Vernon Baptist Church Family.
