“ Me & my wife were neighbors of Isaac & Ladonna in Cincinnati back in the 80's. I played golf with him on many occasion. We worked in the same engineering industry.
It hurt our hearts to learn of his passing and after it had happened. Our one regret is not pushing enough the steps of communicating with the family. This acknowledging comes awfully late but nonetheless we as neighbors and friends felt the need. May Isaac RIP!!

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Isaac's passing. While I did not work with him long at Coca-Cola, he was a very dedicated man and was always willing to help me with any project. I wanted you to know that he will be missed at Coca-Cola. Darla Burge

“ To the Irby family. Words cannot express the deep heartbreak & sorrow we are feeling from the loss of a beautiful soul. He meant the world to George & was loved sooo much by us as well. Ike was kind, funny & blessed. He opened up his heart & home to many. I'm sure they would agree that he made them feel like family. He was an angel on earth spreading love to all of us. Now he's an angel in heaven showering us with love. We will miss you greatly. Love, George, Joni, Chris & Ashly Robinson. 💜🙏
