“Daddy, you and mama are my best friends. We did everything together. I will miss picking you up and riding out, going out of town and talking about real life situations. I will remember our conversations about politics, spirituality and society. You taught me to follow my dream and to do what God called me to do. I'm living up to your standards and that is doing what I love. Thank you for pushing me. Thank you for keeping me motivated. Thank you for making sure your family was taken care of first before anything else. I will not forget when you use to take me to work and your teachings that helped me to have good work ethic and good money management skills. I do love you. I will forever keep the memories alive.
