“ I was just getting ready to send out my annual Christmas card and wondered why I never heard from Miss Joyce... Lo and behold, I found out just now that, she has joined our beautiful God in Heaven. I know she knows that I continue to carry His work with Healing Hand.

I met Miss Joyce when my mother was in rehab with her at the St. Mary's home back in 2013. I used to sit with her and my mother at dinner time. She enjoyed my company as much as I enjoyed hers. Such a lovely Lady... I can see why God called upon her to continue to do His work, but by His side.

I hope all of her family and friends can find solace in knowing this fact.

May you feel God's Healing Light in this Holiday season. And when you see a star sparkle in the night sky, you will know that was Miss Joyce winking and smiling down upon all of you!

Many Prayers, Blessings, Love and God's Healing Light go out to all of you... O:) <3

I choose a green candle as that is the color of the heart chakra:
Miss Joyce had a big and beautiful heart! <3 <3 <3

“ There will be an empty spot in the sanctuary at Southeast Atlanta Seventh Day Baptist Church, where we remember Sister Joyce sitting, so nicely dressed. She appeared to me to have a constant desire to participate in worship of our Lord and Savior, despite the long hours in her wheelchair. Joyce was a loving wife and mother of a wonderful family. We very much appreciate Marlene and Philip (and many family and church members) who for years cared lovingly for her.

We remember how Pastor Joe had shared how she supported him in his ministry by changing her career choice from nursing to teaching so that she might be fully available on the Sabbath.

A few years ago, as Pastor Luis had leadership in the church, I was privileged to share with the children's Sabbath School at Southeast Atlanta, and share this joy along with Sister Joyce. Recently, Pastor Luis and I had a blessed visit with her about a month before she passed away, and I enjoyed giving her a hand with some of the children's materials she planned to share, which included a page she had written about God's important work through Abraham. It was sad to hear of her passing from this world on March 18. It is good knowing the Lord has welcomed her home!

“ Sister Joyce was a part of my childhood in Jamaica. She and Pastor Joe were developing and then strong leaders there. What a joy to have continued the acquaintance, mostly at Conference time here in the US and Canada as they led in Ontario, New Jersey and Georgia. Her love for the Lord and ministry for Him are well known. I will miss her wit and direct manner. Linda and I send our condolences to the family, both immediate and extended. We are looking forward to that “...day of rejoicing”, “when we all get to heaven.”

“ I have only fond memories of Sister Joyce. From the time I went to Kingston SDB Church, Joyce made sure that I was a worker for the Lord. She encouraged me to become President of the Young People's League and that gave me the opportunity to drive with her and her and Pastor Joe, then President of the General Conference to all the country churches. On those trips we planned various youth programs and most notably Camping at Maden Hall. Joyce and I started Teen Time Program at Charles Street SDB Church where the teenagers could ask us any question relating to their sexuality and relationship with the opposite sex. All of the discussions were kept in confidence. The other adults were at first upset that they could not join the group discussion, but Sister Joyce strong personality backed me all the way on that. That program continued until I migrated and she continued it after I left Jamaica. She was someone that had strong biblical principles, a hard worker, a no nonsense personality who truly love the Lord and the work he commissioned us to do. Sleep on and take your rest. by Sister Jasmine Lynch

“ Mrs Samuels (aka. Grandma) was a wonderful lady, always giving words of wisdom and insight. I'm sorry for her death, but it was a blessing knowing her the few years that I did, and I believe she is in a better place, with the lord. May God comfort the family with this thought. Blessings.

“ I was blessed to have known Joyce for only a short time but I appreciate her and her family. I am thankful for the wisdom that she shared with me every time I visited Southeast Atlanta SDB Church. I will be among the people who will miss her but thankful for the friendship of her family and the legacy she leaves behind through them.
