“ Don McCarthy and Family --To my teammate--- also known as (Keith Loud) One of the strongest black men I have ever known. Physically and Spiritually. If Stroud was your friend, that's who he was for life. He was defiantly a Morehouse Man. He possessed all the tools in the toolbox and at different times he would share one of those blessing upon you. Gone but never forgotten. RIP #78.

So saddened to hear of your loss. I pray the Stroud family find peace in knowing you have a family of Saints who know "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. May God continue to richly bless all of you at this most difficult time.

“ Keith, I remember when I first met you, nephew and didn't know who you were. I thought you were a stranger trying to enter our home and I was Not going to let you enter. 😏 🤔 How about in high school when one night we were riding looking for a house party turning the radio down so we could hear the music for the party you thought we were going to and drove up to an older people party by mistake 🙄 😂. Or what about the time we would go thru McDonald's drive thru and you would order a hamburger without the burger and we would laugh and drive off. From our first time meeting you said you was going to make sure that I knew who you were. Well done nephew, rest in Peace. Love you ❤️

“ It is hard for me to believe I will not hear your loud booming voice saying "Uncle Kim, what up unc," regardless of where I was or how much it embarrassed me. I'd hear it and see you approaching with a giant smile and infectious laugh. Then you'd proceed to tell whomever was within earshot how we were the same age and had attended high school together. Yes my dear nephew I will miss you greatly, but I will not question God's plan. I just know when it comes my time, you will be there at Heaven's gate smiling, laughing and saying "Uncle Kim, what up unc." May God provide comfort, strength and understanding for your kids and family.
