“ To my husband whom I have had the pleasure of sharing a life with for 20 years and of those years, married 16 years. Although we were separated, we have always remained in each other lives. You have made a great impact in my life that no words can express. I have always loved you and I will always carry you in my heart. Missing you right now is one of the hardest things I have had to do. God has granted you your wings.
