

Laura Franklin Watkins

September 6, 1929 - August 4, 2025

The service for Laura Franklin Watkins will be live streamed through the Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church website.

Laura Lee Franklin Watkins was born September 6, 1929, in McDonough, GA to the late Sammie Lee Robinson and Nellie Robinson. Laura departed her earthly home Monday, August 4, 2025.

Early in life, she had a deep connection to her father and his love for business. As he endeavored to create generational wealth by purchasing land and automobiles, she was there to learn and share in his passions.

Laura attended the Henry County Training School where she achieved her high school diploma. She later worked for South Fulton Hospital as an operating room technician. After retirement, she began working at J. Riggins Warehouse.

She united in life with the late Wilbert Pearson, to this union a son was born. She later united with the late Elbert Franklin, to this union, seven children were born. Last, united in life to the late Willis Watkins.

Laura walked through life with a keen sense of confidence. With love, she said what she meant, and meant what she said. She instilled in all of her children the skill of soulful culinary arts, and to achieve all that life offers. You couldn't tell her that raising eight children as a single mother was impossible! One of her charming features was her uncanny resemblance to singer Shirley Caesar. Her love of God led her to attend Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church, where her father helped build the original sanctuary. Laura's sense of humor, spirit, and steadfast love for her family was an inspiration to many who knew her.

Laura leaves to cherish in her memory a sister Ruth Joyce. She is preceded in death by her sisters Inez Robinson, Leala Mae McKibben, and Doris Barnes.

She leaves to cherish in her memory six sons, Wilbert Pearson Jr., Albert Franklin (Wanda), Donald Franklin, Winston Franklin, Stanley Franklin (Constance), Glenn Franklin (Tamarra), and one daughter Melissa Steward (Marvin); nineteen grandchildren, a host of great grandchildren; several nephews, nieces, cousins, family members and friends. She is preceded in death by one daughter Norma Jean Franklin.
