

Leornard "Mitch" Mitchell Jr.

November 24, 1958 - January 14, 2021

Mr. Leonard C. Mitchell, Jr., affectionately known as "Mitch" was born on November 24, 1958, to the late Leonard Mitchell, Sr. and Delores Young. He was an astute student and graduate of Richmond Academy in Augusta, Ga. He furthered his post-secondary education at Savannah State University in Savannah, Ga. After graduating, he worked for many years in a rewarding career in Traffic Engineering. He was a devout member of the Red Oak United Methodist Church. He loved God and enjoyed serving in the church. He was a faithful servant and served in various capacities: The Male Chorus, United Methodist Men, and the Finance Committee. Mitch enjoyed sports; he was an avid bowler competitor and won many trophies.

Mitch was a man of many talents and was always willing to use them to help others. He was a man of honor devoted to his family. A great husband, father, provider, and protector are a few of the attributes that characterize this great man of valor. Beyond family, he was a good friend.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Janice Mitchell; son, Jonathan Mitchell; daughter, Jessica (LaDarion) Young; granddaughter, Zamari; mothers, Delores Young and Delores Mitchell; sisters, LaTrond Mitchell, Renee Cushman, Gail, Audrey, Brenda and Emma Young, Karen (Alford) Arnold; brother Gary (Ozzie) and uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by two brothers, Rodrick and Ernest Jr., and a second father, Ernest Young.

“ Deepest condolences to the Mitchell family. Leonard and I were classmates at Richmond Academy. We both shared a love of sports in high school. Over the years we only touched via class reunion news venues and such but he will forever be remembered for his kindness and generosity. May God grant your family peace.
